

FIVE FIRE VICTIMS DIED NEEDLESSLY, SAYS OFFICIAL

Commissioner Murphy to Start "Campaign of Education" Among Tenants.

The fire at No. 317 Third Avenue, which cost five lives, has inspired Tenement House Commissioner John J. Murphy to undertake some educational work among tenants. All might have been saved by proper use of fire escapes, he declares, after investigating the cause of yesterday morning's disaster.

"It is a good opportunity," the Commissioner said, "to emphasize the need of tenants taking thought in advance as to what they would do in case of a fire. The old building at

No. 317 Third Avenue conformed to all requirements within the law permitted us to demand that class of tenements. It has fire-escape buildings from each apartment leading to the windows of buildings on either side. The women and children who lost their lives were doubtless panic-stricken and did not think of any means of escape but the stairs."

The dead are Mrs. Mattie Greenhalgh, her four-year-old son Irving, and Mrs. Julia Weiss and her daughters Anna, fifteen, and May, thirteen. The body of Mrs. Greenhalgh, her arms clasped about that of Irving, was found against the stairway on the top floor. The other dead perished in bed. A Greenhalgh, who lives a block and a half from No. 317 Third Avenue, climbed out of a front window and swung himself to the fire escape of the Central Cafe, which adjoins the tenement on the south. When he should have been following with the child there was no response.

Charles O'Brien and his wife, Carrie, ascended a ladder to the roof. Burned on faces and arms, they were rescued by detectives. Mrs. Gustie Lubowsky, a hair importer, and her twenty-year-old daughter, Anna, were lifted out of their front window on the second floor by detectives and passed along to the Central Cafe's fire escape.

Mrs. Mary De Binder, old and rheumatic, who rooms on the second floor and is now camping there amid the wreckage, was helped to a fire-escape on the east side which leads to the adjoining building on the north.

MISS DAHLGREN'S LICENSE TO RUN AUTO IS REVOKED

Massachusetts Authorities Will Not Permit Her to Burn Up
Roads in "Yellow Streak."

HAS BEEN OFTEN FINED.

Her Driving Gained Notice
Through Proposed Race With Fast Motorcycle.

LENEX, Mass., Oct. 18.—No more may "Yellow Streak" burn up the roads of Massachusetts with the daring and charming Miss Katherine D. Dahlgren at the wheel, for the Highway Commissioners have suspended her license on the ground that she "operates motor vehicles in an improper manner."

"Of course I have been fined two or three times for speeding," said Miss Dahlgren to-day, "but if the records are searched, I believe you will find scores of others who have been fined for speeding more times than I have, and who are still driving cars."

The Berkshire colonists call Miss Dahlgren's 120-horse-power racer, in which she has made ninety miles an hour, "Little Yellow Streak." Although she is only eighteen years old and a slip of a girl, she handles it with exceptional skill and in one July week she was arrested three times for speeding, being fined $25 by one Court.

She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Drexel Dahlgren and is popular in New York, Lenox and Philadelphia. In the latter part of August Miss Dahlgren accepted a challenge to race her car against a motorcycle ridden by George E. Turnure Jr. The highway authorities in the hills were determined the race should not take place. Miss Dahlgren said:

"I simply couldn't take a dare from Mr. Turnure, particularly as I have driven my little yellow roadster at better than sixty miles an hour many times. If it is safe for a man to run a motorcycle at a faster clip than that, a girl ought to be able to go him one better with a powerful engine and four wheels. Mamma doesn't want me to take any risks, but dear mamma doesn't know that it is perfectly safe to drive a car fast when you know the roads perfectly."

"All the village constables for miles around are watching us to prevent the race, but it will be over before they get through shining up their badges."

Miss Dahlgren tried later to secure a permit for the race over the Pittsfield-Lenox State road. The application had no other result than to attract attention anew to her driving. Turnure was seriously injured trying out his motorcycle in preparation for the race. Miss Dahlgren, fast as she has driven, has had no accidents.

WORDY WAR OVER THE CONSTITUTION

Moore County Chairman Assails
Arguments of Messrs. Stimson and Tanner.

Henry L. Stimson, former Secretary of War, and Frederick P. Tanner, Chairman of the Republican State Committee, gave reasons in the Free Synagogue, No. 36 West Sixty-eighth Street, last night why the new State Constitution should be voted for at the polls.

Mr. Stimson was explaining the budget feature when J. J. O'Connell, Chairman of the New York County Progressive Committee, demanded:

"Suppose the Governor's budget were refused by the Legislature and the budget thrown out, how would the State Government operate until a new budget could be made and passed?"

"If you want me to answer that right now," retorted Mr. Stimson, "I will say that the identical problem exists to-day, only in the opposite form. The Governor may now veto the Legislature's proposal, and how would you overcome that?"

"But now the Legislature may override the Governor's veto," replied O'Connell. Then both men plunged into a discussion. O'Connell charged that Tanner had commanded all Republicans to vote for the Constitution. Tanner denied he had done any such thing.

CITIES STILL DRAWING YOUTH FROM THE FARM

Only One-Fourth of State Population Now in Villages and Rural Districts.

ALBANY, Oct. 18.—The continued growth of the population of cities of the State is shown in a statement issued by the State Census Bureau to-day. The cities now have 75 per cent. of the total population, while five years ago their proportion was 74.3 per cent. and in 1900 it was 68 per cent.

Out of the 7,700,000 which, in round numbers, make up New York State's population, says the statement, "approximately 2,500,000 men, women and children have their homes in the villages and rural districts."

"As the outcome of the June census taken under the direction of Secretary of State Hugo (two more cities have been created, Saratoga and Mechanicville becoming such in June, while a third, White Plains, enters into the city column in January next. New York City with its population of over 8,000,000 becomes the home of over one-half of the State's total residents."

TRIES TO DIE; RUNS FOR AID.

Woman Takes Bichloride of Mercury, Then Calls Policeman.

Mr. Marie Tashjian, thirty-eight,
the wife of Benoni Tashjian of No.
3153 Broadway, a former rug impor-
ter, is a prisoner in Knickerbocker Hospital on the charge of attempted suicide. Tashjian lost his spotlight a few years ago and retired from business. Worry over this is said to have driven his wife to melancholia.

The fact that Tashjian or his seventeen-year-old daughter knew of the act was when they were informed that Mrs. Tashjian had run from the house in her nightclothes
to ask aid of Policemen Murray, after taking several tablets of bichloride
of mercury.

Murray called Dr. Robinson from Knickerbocker Hospital and Mrs.
Tashjian was taken there. Her condition is critical.

Quickest, Surest Cough Remedy is Home- Made

Easily Prepared in a Few Minutes. Cheap but Turbided.

Some people are constantly annoyed
from one year's end to the other with a persistent bronchial cough, which is wholly unnecessary. Here is a homemade remedy that gets right at the cause and will make you wonder what became of it.

Get 2½ ounces Pinex (50 cents worth)
from any druggist, pour into a pint
bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Start taking it at once. Gradually but surely you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether, thus ending a cough
that you never thought would end. It also lessens the dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals the inflammation in a painful cough with remarkable rapidity.
Ordinary coughs are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, winter coughs and bronchial asthma.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup mixture makes a full pint—enough to last a family a long time—at a cost of only 54 cents. Keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant. Easily prepared. Full directions with Pinex.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in quaiacal, and is famous the world over for its ease, certainty and promptness in overcoming bad coughs, chest and throat colds.

Get the genuine. Ask your druggist for "54 cents Pinex," and do not accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly
refunded, goes with this preparation.
